

£493,255 worth of benefit across the city through volunteering
A partnership of 11 organisations 25 interconnecting projects

18 community organisations collaborating

4 voluntary groups supported to look after green spaces

1750 trees planted

1 archaeological site surveyed

Advice given to help manage 47 hectares of woodland and 21 grassland sites for people, heritage and wildlife

419 volunteers giving 579 days to care for and share some of Bath's special places

5 new flower-rich meadows sown

43 students getting experience in the workplace

22 families with additional needs taking part in activities together

6 new walking trails exploring this landscape city

498 family members got active in the landscape

280 kits to help children explore nature during lockdown

3470 people exploring the city's landscape online

2 primary schools helping create educational resources

103 people trained in skills to help understand, care for and share Bath's special landscape

71 physical and mental wellbeing sessions

5107 citizen science wildlife observations

2566 people explored Bath's landscape at an event

1744 walkers, young and old taking part in 4 walking festivals

1 World Heritage Site

Bathscape in numbers

